

I would like to voice my concern regarding the FCC's current stance on Power Line Communications (PLC) also known as Broadband over Powerline (BPL). I believe that the commission is placing the interests of BPL vendors above those who use the RF spectrum that BPL will affect. Please consider carefully the users of the existing HF spectrum and look at the interference BPL will cause for these users.